Come on back to the House of Shame
Blood's burning to play my game now
Racks are roasting, bitches are boasting
With your blood they are toasting
Humiliations your dream
We'll make you laugh and scream
In my torture kitchen
Your body's itchin' for a switchin'
Pain! You can't take this another day
Precious moments without the pain
But you ain't leaving. You're here to stay
Breeds only longing in your brain
You will? I need? It's your fucking time to bleed
You will obey everything I say
You will remain while I'm dishing out your pain
Your will is to blame in the House of Shame
Pain in a world with no anatomy
Branded slave, racked and hanging
Only function is pissing and banging
Forced entry breeds a heart full of self-conflicts
But who's to blame for your desire
Problem parents or porno flicks?

You will? I need? It's your fucking time to bleed
You will obey everything I say

You will remain while I'm dishing out you pain

You will is to blame on the House of Shame

Pain! You can't take this another day

But you ain't leaving. You're here to stay

Breeds only longing in you brain
Precious moments without the pain

In the House of Shame

Come on back to the House of Shame
Your blood's burning to play our game now

Racks are roasting, Bitches are boasting

With your blood they're toasting

Humiliations your dream
We'll make you laugh and scream

Your body's itchin' for a switchin'

In my torture kitchen
