You offer me, offer me all the stars above me
You offer me, offer me, offer me the sky

Shall believe all you see
Tell the world you love me
You offer me all you see, (if telling) you a lie

Did you think I grave it, baby
Did you think I play a game

Cause all we are are falling stars
Before we fall
Better wish, better wish, yeah

Cause all we are are falling stars
Before you fall
Better wish, better wish, yeah

Offer you to be true
Take me if I let you
But I've come to see right through
Your colder other side
Now walk away, walk away
Hide you soon, forget you
Walk away, walk away from the sorrowful life

Did you think I grave it, baby
Did you think I'd save the day
Cause all we are are falling stars
Before we fall
Better wish, better wish, yeah

Cause all we are are falling stars
Before you fall
Better wish, better wish

Watch what you do, watch what you say
Watch your ... slip away
Cause who you are or what you say
Never matters anyway

Oh, do you love?

Or do you love my fame, fame?
Do you love me?
Or do you love my fame, fame?

Cause all we are are falling stars
Before you fall
Better wish, better wish

Cause all we are are falling stars
Before we fall
Better wish, better wish, yeah

Cause all we are are falling stars
Before you fall
Better wish, better wish, yeah

Cause all we are are falling stars
Before we fall
Better wish, better wish, yeah

Cause all we are falling stars
Before we fall
Better wish, better wish, yeah

Watch what you do, watch what you say
Watch your . slip away
Who you are or what you say never matters anyway
What you do, not what you say
Watch your . slip away
Who we are, we start to fade
Where we're fallin' anyway?
