Killah Hills 10304

Restaurants on a stake-out, so order the food to take out Chaos, outside a spark's steakhouse
Maintain the power, I feel the deal's gone sour Nigga miss da Wedding, late a fucking half hour
And his man who bought land from Tony Starks While he was contracting bricklaying jobs in city parks he's a loan shark, interest rates a grand to a finger
In the garment district, got it sewn like Singer Cause all that talk blasphemy this kid after me for the heist, in a Burlington Coat Factory Fuck it, he turned snake so my nigga Cash stole his copilot who used to drive like sacks of blow on this remote area, we label Dead Man's Island
Two hundred miles South from Thailand Right off the docks, I got the luxurious custom made yachts
Burial plots, for my niggaz hit with fatal shots
There's no need for us to spray up the scene
I use less men, more powerful shit for my team Like my man Muhammad from Afghanistan Grew up in Iran, the nigga runs a neighbourhood newsstand
A wild Middle Eastern, bomb specialist Initiated, at eleven to be a terrorist He set bombs in bottles of champagne
And when niggaz popped the cork, niggaz lost half they brains
Like this ex-worker, tried to smuggle a half a key in his left leg, even underwent surgery
They say his pirate limp gave him away

As the feds rushed him, coming through U.S. Customs Now look whose on the witness stand singing, a well known soprano
A smash hit from Sammy Gravano here's the plan minimum for the hit, two hundred grand
Half time at the game blasting niggaz out the stands
The sharp-shooters hit the prosecutor, judges are sent Photographs of they wives taking baths Along with briefcase filled with one point five, that's the bribe Take it or commit suicide
First rule, anyone who schemes on the gold in Syria
I want they small intestines ripped from the interior
I got a price for those jewels, ship em freight cargo Don't forget to launder the cream through Wells Fargo Reconstruct those processing plants for the call of Costa Rica
Four hundred barrels of ether, two hundred pounds of reefer and fifty immigrants with fake Visas

Life of a drug dealer
Killah hills, 10304
The saga continues
