Gentle Giant
"Peel The Paint / I Lost My Head"

I peel the paint
look underneath
You'll see the same,
the same old savage beast

Strip the coats
the coats of time
And find mad eyes and see those sharpened teeth

Nothings been learned -
no nothing at all.
Don't be fooled,
get up before you fall.

A carnal grave
(uh) crawling smooth
The open flesh
and you must let them in

The glass reflects
of what you are
It shows the face
the evil face of sin.

Nothings been learned -
No nothing at all
Don't be fooled,
get up before you fall.

I lost my head
forget what I said
what's the use to try to deny it.
I didn't think it
would ever happen again

wondering why,
once bitten twice shy
never thought again would I try it
and even though maybe soon it would end

Wanting to stop
but had to go on,
give a little part of my person,
and don't reflect
don't remember what I said

I was afraid
and I stayed away
making sure of my independence isn't it true that
I lost my head

Took my time
and I didn't rush into anything Showed my face
just forgetting myself oh everything

Everythings true
but everything lies
It's so hard to try to explain it
It doesn't matter
it happened anyway.

and for the time
while someone is mine I'll go on won't try to contain it and even though
it could finish any day

I lost my head
so glad that I made right or wrong, I made the decision to take my chances
give out something of me

how will I feel tomorrow? not real
trying to avoid a collision
I lost my head,
but today I can see.

Took my time
just forgetting myself oh everything

I lost my head
forget what I said

I didn't think it

never thought again would I try it
and even though may-
be soon it would end.

I didn't think it

and even though may-
be soon it would end.
