Lyrics:

Jah Jah is real! Jah Jah is real!

Chorus:

Dem gone. so far away

Dem gone. the hole a dem ago regret it one day

(Repeat)

Every day you get up and wish to have a meal now you get a cut and wish to have it heal and still you can not accept that Jah Jah is real Tell me Mr.Man what's the deal
You say you have everything sign and seel Thought you won the case but nox you a appeal
You are the one who couldn't hear now you the one to feel evidently clear we choppin' down your shield Dem ain't going nowhere no time soon Dem corrupt the east and now dem turn it to the moon Plantain your garden and wish that it will bloom but still you're singing satan tunes

Chorus:

Dem gone. so far away

Dem gone. the hole a dem ago regret it one day

(Repeat)

Mother earth was meant for man and woman to stay me find out nuff a dem drifting away Children can't even find a place fi play birds can't find no seeds horses no hay I see the weavers weaving but dem income delay still me see dem searching for a brighter day and now me come fi give it to you right away Do you hear what I say

Chorus:

Dem gone. so far away

Dem gone. the hole a dem ago regret it one day

(Repeat)

whapen'them?
Give me the mic deh for a moment make me talk to dem and watch the eden dem a scatter when we walk to
and if you know you are not guilty stand up and don't run to all my foes and friends
You may live to see today but you nuh know the end Just read the writings on the wall it's a message we send
And Babylon will never live to stop the rising of Jah son

Chorus:
Dem gone. so far away
Dem gone. the hole a dem ago regret it one day
(Repeat)
