"House of Faith"

There is a house
Not made of steel or stone

There is a house
made of flesh and bone
Open to the hurting open to the lost welcoming the rich and poor man
There is no charge
Love's paid the cost

Chorus
Let the doors swing open
To the House of Faith
Every tribe and nation, every tongue and race
Under Jesus' banner, Let us all embrace
There can be no labels
In the House, the House of Faith.

In the house
There are rooms for the confused
In this house
There are rooms for the abused
Places for the disillusioned
That once saw wrong as right
Hands to hold the weak and fallen
As we run towards redemption's Light

Chorus
