moore geoff and the distance _ foundations lyrics
From the album foundations

Geoff Moore/David Martin
Matthew 7:24_27

And I will build my house upon a strong foundation
And I will set my foot upon the solid rock
And though the storms they blow sometimes
The Lord is by my side

Chorus

The Lord is my, my foundation

He is my, my foundation

And I will build upon this One the world rejected

And I will make His perfect love my cornerstone

And though the river's running high

I will stand against the tide

Chorus

Look deep in my heart to this man that I am

Help me to see all I've built upon sand

Then let your wind blow through the big and the small

And let them fall, let it all fall

Repeat Chorus
