I propose a toast to the 21st century
I can't close me eyes at night
x2

Awareness is inevitable Destruction is not preventable
x2

Bastardization of human life Modernization of efficient life Cutting the corners, cut the cord
There are no mourners, they cannot mourn

Bloodthirsty, unfeeling, outgunned, outmanned Situation has far exceeded critical Our fate was sealed when they flipped the fucking switch

We are all beyond the point of no return
The foregrounds and backgrounds have merged
x2
