Breathe In Now

i see love and beauty all around i also see the sadness that's embedded in your frown i wonder why you choose not to talk to those who surround i sense a fear of lifting heavy feet higher than you want to, i just want to believe your truth....

you stand there but you do not cast a shadow you walk away with every word you choose not to say i suppose that moving on paints a new colour for each day i don't like to see dreams put on the shelf to deal with on that one day i just want to be happy for you cause i only have one second, this minute today i can't press rewind and turn it back and call it now and so this moment, i just have to sing out loud and say i love i like and breathe in now and say i love i live and breathe in now i move on holding on to what i learn it's time to let go of the notion that the whole world's against me break free of shackles that formed young time free in now and now i know it's not all up to me, i can count on another so move on lighter and be free....

and say i love i live and breathe in i believe in for today, i just want to know that you're okay cause i believe in breathing just for today i just want to know that you're okay.....

and say i love, i like abd breathe in now and say i love, i live and breathe in now.....
