And so you say just the words,
That you wanted us to hear
Doctored prose for the world,
While you help us breed our fears
But you're not winning, some are grinning,
Realising that it's just a lesson,
Every empire had had it's day,
And in the end someone has always paid
We are all one,
Despite governments
And we are strong,
Our time is gonna come
How can you even dare
To look your brother in the eye?
You're part of it all,
That we choose not to let into our hearts
Old man evil, down comes your steeple
And your friends are nowhere to be found
Who will help you,
When you falter and the truth comes crashing all around you?
We are all one,
Despite governments
And we are strong,
Our time is gonna come
Until a child
Can grow up without mines or bombs
Until the smallest standard
Is set for all of us
Until the fear patrol
Has lost all that it owns
Until the corporate sons
See that it's time to overturn
We are all One,
Despite governments
And we are strong,
Our time is gonna come
Your time is gonna come..
