Yeahh here we go
There she is in the club on a friday night,
With her back against the wall,
Somethin' about this girl I cant describe
But i know that i want it
In a crowded room she stands alone
With her back against the wall
Biggest eyes ive ever known yeahh
She knows that im watching
Shes right were im walking
Every five minutes Its the second yeahh
She knows what im doing its no mistery to her
I tried looking way but,
Theres that girl with the soft as sweet
Just like sugar and shes higher then me
Somethings going down that somethin' somethin' now
Theres that girl with the softest smile
Ain't gonna stop till the somethin's mine
Stand up baby please
And drop the somethin' somethin' on me
Drop your pants if you feel right Becasue you know were going to rock through the whole night
Drop your pants if you feel right
Does it feel right you...
Gotta see this girl with your one two eyes
With her back up against the wall
Its the way she moves from side to side
Shes got me hypnotized
Its hard to focice
not to notice
When her backs up against the wall
Shes all up onto me
Yeahh you know thats cool with me
She knows that im watching
Shes right were im walking
Every five minutes Its the second yeahh
She knows what im doing its no mistery to her

I tried looking way but,

Theres that girl with the soft as sweet
Just like sugar and shes higher then me
Somethings going down that somethin' somethin' now
Theres that girl with the softest smile
Ain't gonna stop till the somethin's mine
Stand up baby please
And drop the somethin' somethin' on me...
You wanna know what shes like?...
Okay...
She goes like this...
Shes like boom boom boom boom
Shes like nair nair nair nair
Shes like Bair.. Bair..Bair Bair
Shes like Ohhhh Yeahh Ahhhhhhaaaa!
Theres that girl with the soft as sweet
Just like sugar and shes higher then me
Somethings going down that somethin' somethin' now
Theres that girl with the softest smile
Ain't gonna stop till the somethin's mine
Stand up baby please
And drop the somethin' somethin' on me
Theres that girl with the soft as sweet
Just like sugar and shes higher then me
Somethings going down that somethin' somethin' now
Theres that girl with the softest smile
Ain't gonna stop till the somethin's mine
Stand up baby please
And drop the somethin' somethin' on me
