assorted groans, whispers, wails & moans }

{spoken}

A luscious bitch she is, true

But it's not nice to fool mother nature

The proud mother of god like all ho's

Is jealous of her own shadow

So who is this young Vic Tanny bitch

Who wish to be queen for a day?

Who would sacrifice the great grandsons and daughters

Of her jealous mother

By sucking their brain

Until their ability to think was amputated

By pimping their instincts

Until they were fat, horny and strung-out

In her neurotic attempt to be queen of the universe

Who is this bitch
