Comfortable, don't comfortable
I am going to move this mountain
Then I'm going to move you in Yesterday, this is not yesterday
You were standing on my shoulders
Now you're standing on the edge
You were looking for a sign all this time

I am gonna show you what I mean
I am gonna love like you've never seen
You are gonna live like you used to dream
This is your new song

So afraid, that you don't have to be afraid
Even if you make mistakes
You know that I'll remain
You been looking for a sign all this time
If you seek you find me anytime

I am gonna show you what I mean

I am gonna love like you've never seen
You are gonna live like you used to dream
This is your new song

Can you feel the call of love is in moving you
Don't be a child of God
A Love is reaching you
It's everywhere a call of love

I just wanna show you what I mean
I just wanna love like you've never seen
Do you wanna live like you used to dream
Than I've got a song for you

I am gonna show you what I mean
I am gonna love like you've never seen
You are gonna live like you used to dream
This is your new song

You've got a new song
