I have seen you in this place ever since I was a little boy
Reaching out from every corner of this room It's so good to see your face, once again from a child's eyes
I can see You Father Your coming over me

Like the nature of a child
Lord you let me walk in to the wild
But I can hear you call me back to you
Your coming in loud and clear

As I turn my face to you I can see that everything is true
When I come back home I know I'll find you here Too many years I've done without till I found someone to sing about
Makes me wonder what I've been doing all this time

Like the nature of a child
Lord you let me walk in to the wild
But I can hear you call me back to you
Your coming in loud and clear

Lord You bring me to my knees
Just when I thought that I already knew you
I couldn't hold you to anyone
I take the hand that made my hand
You opened up my eyes
I didn't know you till I knew your son

Like the nature of a child
Lord you let me walk in to the wild
But I can hear you call me back to you
Your coming in loud and clear
