Remember the time when I thought of letting go and taking back my hand when I all I could think was how long can I follow you and where do I stand in this world and when I thought I couldn't move along God I'm not that stong to walk through the valley with you and though it still remains a mystery what you see in me come back to me every time

An just like a soldier
you battle for my soul
and more like a father
you come and take me home

And what is the worth of a man living for himself with a heart of his own he comes to your table with his hands reachin out to you Father won't you please give me more cause God I come to see your heart for me how it breaks for me to witness a son fall away so come and take me as you see me now jesus show me how claim me to be by your side

You placed your spirit inside of me a love more consuming then I thought it could be and I'll take this love this holiest flame and give up this fight cause Lord I remember

I remember

(x2)An just like a soldier

Your takin me home

remember the time when I thought of letting go
when all I could think
