Now that we know that it's over
We need to talk about the end
Don't let ya emotions control ya
So don't u start with that crying
Don't act like I don't know what's on ya mind
I know what u tryna keep
But girl it's fine
U don't have to be sneaky
Aint no need for that
All u have to do is tell me
And imma make it easy

You can have the house
Keep yo jewelry
I dnt want the dog
I just want my things
Like my powder blue
Bentely with the roof top gone
Imma need that
This is the breakup song
And baby you can keep the clothes
Keep them credit cards
Imma keep the black one
The black ones hard
And my wrist icy I think I'll keep it on
Imma need that
This is the breakup song

Now how many times have I told ya
There aint no use in tryin to be friends
I let it go
I aint tryna hold ya
Girl this is the beginninng of the end
And even tho it's clearer out of time
All I wanna do is claim wats mine
So imma go into the house and pack up all my things
And since we breakin up girl
What u think that means?

You can have the house
Keep yo jewelry

I dnt want the dog
I just want my things
Like my powder blue
Bentely with the roof top gone
Imma need that
This is the breakup song
And baby you can keep the clothes
Keep them credit cards
Imma keep the black one
The black ones hard

After all we've been thru
Y u gotta do me like this
When u knew that I'd be here
Shulda let me know
Insetad of runnin round hoein
Don't act like ya love me
Girl cu zthat's not showin
You shuldve known that wed be breakin up

You can have the house
Keep yo jewelry
Like my powder blue
Imma need that
This is the breakup song
And baby you can keep the clothes
The black ones hard
