I don't want nothing
Nothing but you
Am I waiting
Looking for a new blue moon

I'm so tired waiting
Waiting for you
Am I waiting
Looking for a new blue moon

So many moons have come and gone
And none of them were blue
So many times the sun came up but
Came up without you, you, ya yoo hoo oh

You won't call me
Call me lonely
Am I waiting

Looking for a new blue moon

So many moons have come and gone
And none of them were blue
So many times the sun came up but it
Came up without you, you, ya yoo hoo oh

Someday when you hold me
Someday you may see
I was waiting
Looking for a new blue moon
I was waiting

Blue moon
