My friend, is the going rough with troubled seas around To angry when you set your soul and dark clouds on you frown
Have you ever looked for bread and only found a stone
But it's because you're paddeling your boat of life alone.

--- Instrumental ---

Is the raft you once had charted now both blurred and marred
Is you soul and body weary, the task of rowin' hard Have you ever looked for joy and disappointment known
But it's bacause you're paddeling your boat of life
alone.

--- Instrumental ---

My friend there is one who knows your every fault and sin
And he knows your trouble and your whole dear life of
sin
So why not call on Jesus, He'll help you safely on Oh, my friend, it's foolish to paddle all alone...
