(George)

Honey, I'm home and it's late, the day is over
You've been running through my mind all day long
And there's somethin' I'm just dying to tell you
We're not lovin' enough here at home.

(Tammy)

And maybe it's a woman's intuition
For I have those same feelin's too
We've been living, not loving together
And I'm so glad to hear it from you.

(Both)

Turn out the lights, come to bed, let's get to together
'Cause when your touchin' me you mean so much to me
in my arms
You know I said I'll be right there, it'll be heaven
We'll be closer than ever again.

Closer than ever again...
