Go, go, go away with me, mhm
Far from his heart and eyes
I can love you and you'll realize
That your life holds so much in store
When you wanted and loved and adored.

Go, go, go away with me
And I know you soon will forget
His false love that's haunting your memories
Go and you'll never regret.

--- Instrumental ---

You're his plaything and nothing more
He will hurt you he's done it before
Then you'll cry out cry out in vain
For his heart to go wondering again.

Go, go, go away with me
And I know you soon will forget
His false love that's haunting your memories
Go and you'll never regret.

Go, go, go away with me. mhm...
