I never think of searching for a new love
'Cause you would only stand in my way
I'm happy loving you and I can feel it
And I fall in love with you every day.

You do so many things that I treasure
You are the answer to the prayer I pray
The sweetness in your touch can not be measured
And I fall in love with you every day.

Everyday I see much more of heaven
'Cause you have kept my loneliness away
Sharing love with you makes life much brighter
And I fall in love with you every day.

Yes, I fall in love with you every day...
