Sweetheart, it's been several days now
Since they found me on the street
But since then and old friend lonely cried
And it's got me back on my feet.

This morning I'll just drink enough
To knock me out by noon
Yes, I've was down for a little while
But I'm finally over you.

The sun outside it is much to bright
That's why I'm wearing these shades
And the reason I havn't shaved is because
The drug store ran out of blades.

So if you hear that I'm not makin' it
Don't belive it because it's not true
Yes, I was down for a little while
But I'm finally over you.

--- Instrumental ---

So if you hear that I'm not makin' it
Don't belive it because it's not true
Yes, I was down for a little while
But I'm finally over you...
