Imagine we're married
And we're not even friends
You're always right and I'm so wrong
And I always have been.

You won't listen
And our love is dying within
You're always right and I'm so wrong
And we're living in sin.

Imagine we're married
And we're not even friends

We loved but we were wed
With love so kind and true
Now I wish I were dead
And I wish I were too.

You're always right and I'm so wrong
It's again and again
Imagine we're married
And we're not even friends.

--- Instrumental ---

We loved but we were wed
With love so kind and true
Now I wish I were dead
And I wish I were too.

You're always right and I'm so wrong
It's again and again
Imagine we're married
And we're not even friends.

Imagine we're married
And we're not even friends...
