Before I met you I was a meek and humble man
And on my own I could always find your will to stand
But my weakness and your power made me play too rough
So it's time to let you know I had enough.

For the first time in my life I'm really proud of me
And without you I can't be the way I wanna be
You, you changed and rearranged my life too much
I don't love you anymore I had enough.

I'm so proud to know I finally got control of me
And it's good to know I'm on my feet and not down on my knees
The roads you've drag me down were much too rough Wine you've used me long enough.

Warm red wine you've used me long enough...
