A thousand arms to hold you tight
Five hundreds hours to love you right.

Darling, each and every day I've known you
I fall in love with you a little more
More than just my arms and hours can show you
Maybe that's why I keep wishin' for.

A thousand arms to hold you tight
Five hundreds hours to love you right
A thousand arms to never let you go
Five hundred hours to always love you so.

It seems I just can't do enough things for you
To ever pay you back for lovin' me
I idolize and worship and adore you
Still if I had one wish that wish would be.

A thousand arms to hold you tight
Five hundreds hours to love you right
A thousand arms to never let you go
Five hundred hours to always love you so.

A thousand arms to hold you tight
Five hundreds hours to love you right
A thousand arms to never let you go
Five hundred hours to always love you so...
