Well, I have lived a lot
And done my part of running 'round
And never did I think
I'd let her sweet love get me down
But now, I see how wrong I was
Your part of ev'ry plan
Perhaps I'll pay, but come what may
My hearts at your command

Oh this
Aching, breaking heart of mine
Is crazy over you
And I'm afraid to let you know
How I love you like I do
For if you knew how much I care
I know what you would do
You'd drop me like the others
And go find somebody new

Last night I saw you darlin'
In the arms of someone new
And I know that you don't love him
You just want to make me blue
I guess you think that hurting me
Will make me love you more
But someday, from you darlin'
This old heart will lock it's door

Oh this
Aching, breaking heart of mine
Is crazy over you
And I'm afraid to let you know
How I love you like I do
For if you knew how much I care
I know what you would do
You'd drop me like the others
And go find somebody new
