Well, I used to sit at home and wonder why, why, why
All the happiness in life just passed me by
I didn't think in all the world there could ever be
One girl in a million who was meant for me.

Then along came you walkin' down the street
Then along came you, you knocked me off my feet.
I never thought I'd find a girl that ever would be true
Somewhere outta nowhere along came you.

--- Instrumental ---

I had just about forgotten how to smile
You could see my misery for a coutry mile
Used to being lonely surrendered to the blue
Then somehow outta nowhere along came you.

Then along came you walkin' down the street
Then along came you, you knocked me off my feet.
I never thought I'd find a girl that ever would be true
Somewhere outta nowhere along came you.

--- Instrumental ---

Then along came you walkin' down the street
Then along came you, you knocked me off my feet.
I never thought I'd find a girl that ever would be true
Somewhere outta nowhere along came you...
