As of now I'm starting my life over
You're gonna see a great change in me
Those dark clouds overhead are hangin' by a thread
And soon they'll break and fall, just wait and see.

As of now I'm looking for a new love
One I can always depend upon
Remember what I say I'll have a better day
Like the ones I had before you came along.

As of now I'm gaining back my pride
Soon I'll have a new love by my side
One I can rely on to be true
And hope he don't turn out to be like you...

--- Instrumental ---

As of now I'm gonna be a new girl
You'll see a change in me ole lover boy
And you won't know me then you'll just remember when
You used me in a game just like a toy.

As of now I'm stopping all my weepin'
I'm tired of feelin' sorry for myself
It's time I had some fun, it's over and it's done
Now I'll go celebrate because you left.

As of now I'm gaining back my pride
Soon I'll have a new love by my side
One I can rely on to be true
And hope he don't turn out to be like you.

And hope he don't turn out to be like you.
