Just a poor mountain lad
The devil must have been his dad
I've seen a lot of trouble in my time.

I've seen his momma cryin' while he was a-runnin' wild
I heard his daddy say, boy, you're no son of mine
I watched his uncle whip him hard with a double plow
line
I've seen a lot of trouble in my time.

Just a poor mountain lad
The devil must have been his dad
Lord, I've seen a lot of trouble in my time.

Well, I seen his momma barefoot in the cold winter time
His dad would lay out drinkin' for weeks on the wine
I've seen the children hungry and cry at supper time
Lord, I've seen a lot of trouble in my time.

Well, I've heard momma prayin', read the bible late at night
His dad would say it's bedtime, woman, blow out the light
I've see her do the washin', the clothes freezin' on the line
I've seen a lot of trouble in my time.

Just a poor mountain lad
The devil must have been his dad
I've seen a lot of trouble in my time.

Just a poor mountain lad
The devil must have been his dad
Lord, I've seen a lot of trouble in my time.

Just a poor mountain lad
The devil must have been his dad
Lord, I've seen a lot of trouble in my time...
