

George Jones "Getting Over The Storm"

Visit "Getting Over The Storm" on MotoLyrics.com

Guess I'm hurt because of your leaving
I know for sometime I will be
I still see the cloud that brought sadness
And the blue rain is still part of me.

But real soon you may see me lonesome
And once more see my will to go on
Yes, I'll admit I'm still under the weather
But darling, I'm gettin' over the storm.

I'm gettin' over the storm, I'm gettin' better
For the first time there's no sign of rain
While this is appearing and my skies are clearing
I feel the harsh wind of first growing pain.

--- Instrumental ---

Once you said that I'd never forget you
At the end of my first you will see
That I'll find the love I've treasured
There's a new life just waitin' for me.

I can see the new rays of sunshine
Early pain that I knew have all gone
Yes, I'll admit I'm still under the weather
But darling, I'm gettin' over the storm.

I'm gettin' over the storm, I'm gettin' better
For the first time there's no sign of rain
While this is appearing and my eyes are clearing
I feel the harsh wind of first growing pain...

Visit George Jones page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.