It can't hurt me I stopped livin' yesterday

Let the icy cold wind blow
Let it rain let it snow
Let a hurtin' heartache move inside to stay

Let the shoes ware off my feet
Let me sleep out in the street
It can't hurt me I stopped livin' yesterday

You were every reason I had left to live
But yesterday a stranger offered more than I could give

I don't care which road I take
Or how much misery's in my way
It can't hurt me I stopped livin' yesterday

You were every reason I had left to live
But yesterday a stranger offered more than I could
give

I don't care which road I take
Or how much misery's in my way
It can't hurt me I stopped livin' yesterday

It can't hurt me I stopped livin' yesterday
