Why don't you let a little lovin', let a little lovin'
Let a little lovin' come in
Open up your window to your heart and let it in.
Won't you let a little lovin' come in.
Well, ain't no use in you keepin' all that misery bottled up inside you
You could have a blast and forget about the past
If you'd only give yourself a chance
Why do you do a little hopin' and quit all that mopin'
Well if you hsd?
And it wouldn't take a second glance.
If you just let a little lovin', let a little lovin'
Let a little lovin' come in
Open up your window to your heart and let it in.
Won't you let a little lovin' come in.
Let a little lovin', let a little lovin'
Let a little lovin' come in.
Tall dark and handsome come in.
Let a little lovin' come in.
