Well, it's true that we just can't live together
For your hungers and my heart don't agree
So let's celebrate our party with a party
Let's get together before we go our separate ways.

Let's get together just one time, once again
To cover up the beginning of the end
And though we both have agreed to disagree
Let's get together one more time then we'll be free.

--- Instrumental ---

I'll pick you up same place, same time as always
Don't be late for this is our last date
We'll have tonight to remember yesterday
Let's get together before we go our separate ways.

Let's get together just one time, once again
To cover up the beginning of the end
And though we both have agreed to disagree
Let's get together one more time then we'll be free.

Let's get together one more time then we'll be free...
