

George Jones

"Man That You Once Knew"

Visit "Man That You Once Knew" on MotoLyrics.com

If you see a man in clothes that's old and ragged
And he walks from bar to bar in worn out shoes
If people point and whisper, "God have mercy."
Would you deny the man that you once knew?
If on the street I meet you with your new love
And I walk right up and say, "How do you do?"
Would you turn your back and tell him you don't know me
Would you deny the love that you once knew?
Would you be ashamed to remember
I'm the same man who lost ev'rything for you
If tomorrow on the street I die a beggar
Would you deny the man that you once knew?
Would you deny the love that you once knew?...

Visit George Jones page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.