

George Jones "Memory Is"

Visit "Memory Is" on MotoLyrics.com

Memory is a flower you once wore in your hair
You were twice as lovely as these vows that we always would share
Memory is a pillow where you once layed your head
Memory is a garden where our love ran and played.

Memory is a first fight, the ones that tore us apart Memory is the jealousy that drove the trust from our heart
Memory is a far cry that warns the heart and the soul Deceit and shame, distrust and blame have made the fire grow cold.

Memory is a costumes whose gift won't set me free Memory is a future whose past won't let me be Memory is a lost love forever gone astray
You will be my last memory on my dying day...

Visit George Jones page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.