Word is around he walked out on you
And your world, it shattered like glass
I just found out that you're back in town
And searching for parts of your past.

You loved and lost, I lost and found
A new love I know will last
If you're hoping to find what you've left behind
There's no future for me in our past.

--- Instrumental ---

I know you're hurt and what you're going through
I want what's hurting for you
But there's not one thing in my past I can change
Even if I wanted to.

You loved and lost, I lost and found
A new love I know will last
But you're hoping to find what you've left behind
And there's no future for me in our past.

There's no future for me in our past..
