

George Jones "Old Old House"

Visit "Old Old House" on MotoLyrics.com

There's an old old house that once was a mansion
On a hill overlookin' the town
But time has left a wreck where once there was beauty
And soon the old house will tumble down.

But when the leaves start to fall in autumn
And the rain starts to drift from the dream
And there's an old old man who walks in the garden
And his head is bowed in memory.

--- Instrumental ---

They say he built the mansion for the love of a woman
And they planned to be married in the fall
But her love withered in the last days of summer
And the house stands empty after all.

But when the leaves start to fall in autumn
And the rain starts to drift from the dream
And there's an old old man who once walked in the garden
And his head is bowed in memory.

And there's an old old man who once walked in the
garden
And his head is bowed in memory...

Visit George Jones page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.