Darlin', there's talk around town
'Bout a girl who spreads love around
With soft lips and eyes crystal blue
Darlin', say it's not you

They say that she comes in alone
And stays till self-respect is gone
Then each night she leaves with someone new
Darlin', say it's not you

Well at first, what they said it didn't hurt me
Until they mentioned her name
Then slowly, the tears overtook me
Her name an' yours is the same

Each night till the breaking of dawn
I pray that you're not the one
Tell me lies but say it's not true
Darlin', say it's not you
Darlin', say it's not you
