SHE'S LONESOME AGAIN

(George Jones - George Riddle)

© '63 Glad Music

Look out heart I can tell you have weaken
For I feel those heartaches began
She's come back and I don't know what has brought her
She don't love me she's just lonesome again
For a while I know that I'll be happy
And that's all that matters within
Though I love her I know I can't hold her
But she'll come back when she's lonesome again

Just like always I'm waiting here for her
Yes it's true I always have been
Yes I love her but I know I'll be sorry
She don't love me she's lonesome again
Yes I love her but I know I'll be sorry
She don't love me she's lonesome again
