Through a tear I stare at your picture
I can still feel your lips close to mine
The day I lose your memory
Is the day I lose my mind.

Late at night your voice still wakes me
I reach out with my arms open wide
The day I lose your memory
Is the day I lose my mind.

You're the one that I breathe for
You're still here even though you're away
You're the reason I'll wait for tomorrow
You're the reason I lived yesterday.

This old heart is broke down with sorrow
And I almost cried myself blind
The day I lose your memory
Is the day I lose my mind.

The day I lose your memory
Is the day I lose my mind...
