George Jones & Melba Montgomery

(Both)

We said our goodbyes long ago
Never thinking we'd miss each other so
All the memories we can't leave behind
Oh, we must have been out of our minds

(Chorus:)

(Melba) I thought I loved another, not you
(George) How foolish, I thought the same, too
(Both) They both turned out to be the wrong kind
(Both) Oh, we must have been out of our minds
(Both)

Let's forgive and forget the past we've known
And reap together the wild seeds we've sown
Surely they can forgive us in time
That, we must have been out of our minds

(Repeat chorus)

Yes, we must have been out of our minds
