Yes, I know why I want to cry, it's over you
And I'm painting the town feelin' blue
If you've ever loved one that's untrue
Yes, I know why I want to cry, it's over you.

Well, tomorrow I'll be twice as blue
I'm so low I could die over you
I should have known that you'd never be true
Yes, I know why I want to cry it's over you.

Well, I tried you all over again
And you just lied all over again
Yes, I'm asking for heartaches anew
Yes, I know why I want to cry, it's over you.

Yes, I know why I want to cry, it's over you...
