

George Jones "Your Old Standby"

Visit "Your Old Standby" on MotoLyrics.com

A shoulder to cry on is all you want from me
Someone to share your heartaches when you cry Someone you can depend on, who will always be around
I'm nothing more than just your old standby

If you could call me darlin', if you could call me dear
If you could learn to love me by and by
I wouldn't mind this waiting, for I could stand the pain
I'd be more to you than just your old standby

You wouldn't call me darlin' and you wouldn't call me
dear
I wonder if you'll miss me when I die
You have no consideration, and you show no sympathy
I'm nothing more than just your old standby

If you would call me darlin', if you would call me dear
If you could learn to love me by and by
I wouldn't mind this waiting, for I could stand the pain
I'd be something more than just your old standby

Visit George Jones page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.