Dearly beloved, we are gathered together
In the presence of God, and these witnesses
To join this man and this woman in the bonds
Of holy matrimony

Do you Tammy, take this man, George
To be your lawfully wedded husband
To love and to cherish until death do you part?

I'll take this man and by him I-I'll stand
I promise that we'll never part
To him I'll be true-ue, there'll be no one new-ew
From now, 'til death do us part

And do you, George, take this woman, Tammy
To be your lawfully wedded wife
To love and to cherish, until death do you part?

Yes I'll take this woman, she'll be mine forever
And I'll love her with all of my-y heart
To have and to ho-old, my love won't grow co-old
I promise, 'til death do us part

We'll take each other, from this day forward
Together, in sickness or health
United with lo-ove, we'll face life together
If we're poor, or if we ha-ave wealth

For better or worse, you'll always come fir-irst
And no one can keep us apar-art
Yes, we take each other, forsaking all others
Together, 'til death do us part

I now pronounce you, man and wife
