Yeah,
Ohh.

I let time take the rest of me i let time get the best of me Im wide awake and dreaming

I found myself writing her a love song Hoping the words don't come out wrong i pray to god Can't be only dreaming

And now i can't get her off my mind,
And finding it hard to sleep Im wide awake and These feelings in my heart
They won't start to fade Away Or break away

Cause i i need you and its everything you do
And Im falling
im falling for you
its all for you

I start to believe i talk to her everyday Face to face
i still can't erase the feelings That get bottled deep inside
I've been playing childish games

Alone in my mind
Knowing it could be that moment but i choose to run and hide

And the beauty of her smile
And the warmness in her eyes They keep on pulling me in Pulling me in just keep Puling me in

Couldn't avoid wanting her

Should of known What i've been fighting for So please Just understand Take a chance Just Take a chance

And i i need you and everything you do And Im falling im falling for you I let time take the best of me
And as i get the rest of me [im] still stuck finding words to say

Sometimes i feel that i should let this go But now, oh now
i know i need you
Its everything you do

im falling

Cause i,
and everything you do
