Ive been in and out of favour with lady luck
I gotta tell you
Ive seen things I never wanted to see

Ive got to get back on my feet
I feel like Ive been sleeping
Sweet, sweet time
Has been a real good friend of mine

Waiting for that change of season
Oh the winters been so long
Searching for that rhyme or reason
Youve just got to

Move on
Hold it together, move on
Lifes so short, move on
Only time will set you free
Just like me

You put your fears behind you
Better get yourself where you wanna be
I think of all the days and nights I spent crying
And I move on

Ive been in and out of favour with love
Because I gotta tell you
Ive been things I never wanted to be
And then some angel called me up
He told me I was sleeping
Said don't waste time
Cos even angels say goodbye

Waiting for that change of season
Oh the winters been so long
Searching for that rhyme or reason
Youve just got to

Move on
Hold it together, move on
Lifes so short, move on
Only time will set you free

Just like me

You put your tears behind you
Better get yourself where you wanna be
I think of all the days and nights I spent crying
Endlessly

And oh, there goes another season
Getting hard to find a decent song to play
But oh, I guess I got my reasons
Everybody thinks I'm doing a.o.k.
They ought to know by now

Move on
Hold it together, move on
Lifes so short, move on
Only time will set you free
Just like me

And life you won't wait for me

You put your tears behind you
Better get yourself where you wanna be
I think of all the days and nights I spent crying
Until my angel set me free

I'm gonna be lucky in love someday
