Mother says don't hurt yourself on purpose
But sometimes I can't help it, I love you and I would do anything for you Holding on is what I'm good at, you say it's wrong but I don't understand that Feel my heart it still beats, even though you tore it apart

What did you say, I don't love you in your mind
But your mind doesn't understand my kind I love you and I would do anything for you

You loved me once where did that go
You blame me guess I should know but I don't Mother says I should move on but I can't I gotta hold on my heart see's what your mind doesn't want to believe
You would understand if you close your eyes and trust me

But you don't, your to scared, your heart, your heart isn't prepared Cause I love you and I would do anything for you

So come back home before I'm forced to let you go, come back home
Before I'm forced to let you go, don't do this to yourself
Don't do this to me, don't do this to us

You loved me once, where did that go
You blame me, guess I should know
But I don't, you loved me once where did that go
You blame me cause I should know
