I sat here for a long time
Trying to find these words
And I'm feeling kind of silly, babe
Even though it really hurts

That the big wide ocean parts us
And the distance lets us know
What a separated live means
To the both of us

So all is left for me to say
I had to let you know
How I miss you
How I miss you, babe
Yeah I miss you
God I miss you, babe

Different worlds we live in
And different worlds we are
Different situations, babe
That are keeping us apart

But no matter where this leads us
And no matter what will be
You must always keep in mind
What you mean to me

And now I'm sitting here alone
And thought I'd let you know
How I miss you
Oh how I miss you, babe
Yeah I miss you
Oh god I miss you, babe

So all is left for me to say
I had to let you know
How I miss you
