You might believe in resurrection
Forgiveness by the power of thee

You might believe that praying
And repeated prayer saying
Will enlighten you eventually

You might believe in your salvation
And redemption of original sin

You might believe that kneeling
On the ground makes it appealing
For us to help your kind and kin

No matter what your faith is hangin' on
As long as some of you got something
You can hang it on

We laugh in heaven 'bout what you do
You seem to need us, what are we to do
Looking for answers in the dark of night
We have to tell you
That nothing ain't right

You claim to know the truth for certain
And say who don't agree are blind

But truth is not objective
And depends on ones perspective
And therefore there is more than a kind

You beg and ask a wish to be granted
But long have lost your dignity

If granted you will praise us
And if not you will still raise us
And say god acts mysteriously

The fear of knowing not what life will bring
Is so unbearable you'd place your faith in anything

We laugh in heaven 'bout what you do

You seem to need us, what are we to do
Looking for answers in the dark of night
We have to tell you...

We laugh in heaven 'bout what you do
You seem to need us, what are we to do
Looking for answers in the dark of night
We have to tell you
For the last time
That nothing ain't right

We laugh in heaven 'bout what you do
You seem to need us, what are we to do
Looking for answers in the dark of night
We have to tell you
We gotta tell you
Sorry to tell you
That nothing ain't right
