

George Sanford Jackson

"Why Did You Love Me"

Visit "Why Did You Love Me" on MotoLyrics.com

She told me she'd been blue too long
And I had been the cause

I handed her a painful me
And left it like it was

What made me think she'd love me
No matter what I'd done
What made me think she'd give me all
While I would give her none

Why did you love me
Why was I your one and only
Why did you love me
'Till finally you made up your mind
To leave what you could never find

Took the air that made her breathe
And poisoned it with tears

She tried to fight it when she could
But I just wouldn't hear

The lessons I've been learning
I'm learning awful well
The times when I was flying high
Have now changed into hell

Why did you love me
Why was I your one and only
Why did you love me

So after all these times of down and out
Your feelings lead you to a life without me

Why did you love me
Why was I your one and only
Why did you love me
'Till finally you'd leave behind
A love that broke apart through time

